Subject: Clarification

Douglas,

Thank you for your assistance this afternoon. I appreciated your patience and professionalism. As per our conversation regarding the change in signers.

Julie Mercer relocated out of Baltimore City. According to the License, one of the three signers must be a resident of Baltimore City. Lawrence Lamotte, a resident of Baltimore City agreed to fill Julie Mercer's spot. We appreciate his diligence and dedication to the Center Club.

If you have any other questions please feel free to ask.

Kind Regards,

Dear Mr. Paige:

Enclosed, please find our application for renewal of the Alcoholic Beverage License along with a copy of our Worker's Compensation Insurance information, proof of payment of our 2013-2014 Personal Property Taxes and the $50.00 renewal processing fee.

This letter also confirms that we are changing two of the names on our application; we have removed David C. Deger and John I. Warnack, replacing them with David H. Nevins and Kevin M. Bonner.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

David H. Nevins

Dear Licensee(s):

Enclosed is your 2013 renewal application. At renewal, you may change a name on your license held as a limited liability company or a corporation if the majority owner of the business is not changing. Because a criminal background check must be done on any new licensee, please file your renewal early in March so that your renewal license will not be delayed. If you are changing the city resident or taxpayer on your license at renewal, you must provide proof that the applicant has lived in the city, owns property, or pays taxes to Baltimore City in his or her individual name for two years preceding the filing of the application. This is a continuing requirement, and you must always have someone on your license who qualifies as a City resident or taxpayer.

This application, your Worker's Compensation Insurance information, proof of payment of your 2012-2013 Personal Property Taxes and the $50 renewal-processing fee must be submitted by March 31, 2013. If you have been notified that there is a sales tax hold on your license by the State Comptroller's office, that the charter of your limited liability company or corporation is not in good standing or you have outstanding obligations to this agency, your 2013 renewal license will not be released until these issues are resolved. You must still file your renewal by March 31st.

During the past year, State auditors conducted a performance audit of the agency and they have made several findings that will require the agency to change procedures. There will be no notary services available at our office during renewal. When you submit your renewal, all signatures must be notarized or the renewal will be rejected. In addition, the agency has been forced to lay off employees; therefore, all renewals must be mailed to our office at 231 E. Baltimore Street, 6th floor. We will not accept walk in renewals. If you need to review your file to obtain information, you must come in between 9 am and noon on Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday. With the number of licenses in Baltimore City and layoffs, our staff cannot handle phone calls asking for information from last year's form.

Your renewal is a very important document, and I urge you to make a copy of it for your own records. Your renewal application, required information, and renewal-processing fee must be received or postmarked by March 31, 2013. After that date, a $50 per day late fee will be imposed.

Very truly yours,

Samuel T. Daniels, Jr.
Executive Secretary
